Sam Sat

Letters m, s, a, and t • Supported caption text • Use after Set 1A skills are taught.

1 SAY IT

Adult: Keep this section facing you. Say mat, sat, Sam, Tam.
Example: sat has three sounds: /s/ /ă/ /t/.
Student: Say each word's sounds, then blend them.
Change /s/ in sat to /m/. Say the new word.

2 REVIEW IT

Reading skill: Read words made with m, s, a, and t.

m: mat s: sat a: at t: Tam

3 PRACTICE IT

Adult: Point to the words one at a time in a different order. Student: Read each word.

WORDS TO READ

Decodable at am mat sat

Story Words Tam Sam

Supported caption text. An adult may introduce the characters aloud.

HEART WORDS

none yet

Heart Words begin in Step 2.

MEANING PREVIEW Adult reads: Tam is a girl. Sam is a cat. They sit on a mat.

4 READ IT

Read to find who sat.

Tam sat.
Sam sat.

5 TALK ABOUT IT

Who sat?

READ IT AGAIN Reread smoothly with connected words. Read again if helpful. Do not time it.

IF A WORD IS HARD Look at each letter, say the sounds, blend, and reread.

Write About Sam Sat

Letters m, s, a, and t • Set 1A Sample Lesson

Name _____ Date _____

6 SPELL IT

Adult: Choose two words from the Decodable row in Practice It.

If more practice is needed, choose one more from that row. Keep the front hidden.

Student: Repeat each word, say its sounds, write it, read it back, and correct it.

7 WRITE FROM DICTATION

Adult: Dictate a story sentence containing one word the student just spelled. Add a second if ready.

Student: Repeat each sentence, write it, reread it, and check it.

8 WRITE YOUR OWN SENTENCE ABOUT THE STORY

Write one sentence about the story. Say it aloud. Then write it. An adult may help with untaught words.

CHECK YOUR WRITING ☐ A capital ☐ spaces ☐ • end mark ☐ ✓ makes sense ☐ easy to read

Reviewer note • not student-facing

Step 1 has no planned stories; this is a supported caption-text sample. Sam and Tam are not in the word bank.
mat and sat are bank words (WB-0139, WB-0003) but are not formally story-cleared. SAMPLE draft. Art reused from the 1A sample story.